DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 4-16-2004 and 6-2-2004 was considered by the examiner.

Drawings

2. The content of the drawings are approved by the examiner

Title

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 40 is objected to because it contains a typographical error in line 8.

Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 21, 34, and 40 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 13-16 and 18 of copending Application No. 10/691,463.

Art Unit: 2852

This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: the toner bottle having a protrusion or rib that is sensed to determine the type of toner cartridge.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claims 40 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kato et al. The toner container bottle by Kato et al. comprising a spiral groove and a rib formed at a second end portion opposite to a first end portion which has a toner discharge port (Figures 3A and 3B).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

11. Claims 21, 27, 30, and 32-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kato et al. in view of Takami et al. (6,421,139). Kato et al. teaches a toner bottle for use in an image forming apparatus comprising an elongated cylindrical body portion, at least one groove extending around an outer surface of the body portion; a first end portion at the body portion; a second end portion at a second end; a toner discharge port at the first end; a rib 31 formed at the second end that is sensed by a toner bottle sensor 32A (Figure 3A-1; 3A-2; 3B-1; 3B-2); and a holder guide 14. The groove is a spiral groove that extends without breaks from the second end portion and the first end portion Takami et al. teaches a projection on a paper cassette that is sensed to discriminate the cassette type (column 4, lines 62-66; Figure 5; column 5, lines 4-47). The cassette is a consumable used within an image forming apparatus. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention was made to use the teaching of Takami et al. with the image forming device of Kato to detect the type of consumable so that the image forming device performs without a lowering of throughput (Takami et al.; column 1, lines 60-65).

Allowable Subject Matter

12. Claims 28 and 43 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claims 1-10, 14-20, 35, 37-39, and 45-54 are allowed.
